New Food Options at Cedarville University include Chick-fil-A, Tossed

CEDARVILLE, OHIO -- Students at Cedarville University will have additional food options on campus when the university opens a new dining center that includes Chick-fil-A and Tossed restaurants. The new food options will be located in a 15,000-square-foot, $7 million facility overlooking Cedar Lake, and next to Centennial Library. The new dining center is expected to open in 2020.

The eatery will help reduce growing traffic concerns during meal times at Cedarville University, which has grown to nearly 4,200 students. Currently, Cedarville offers two dining options to students--its large dining hall in the Stevens Student Center and Stinger's, a large snack shop that features sandwiches, salads and wraps.

The new dining facility will add a full-service Chick-fil-A and Tossed restaurant to students' meal options. Tossed is a design-your-own salads, hot bowls, wraps and personal pan pizza restaurant. Together, the restaurants will provide up to 300 seats in a two-level facility that overlooks Cedar Lake. The new restaurants will be open to the public.

Located in southwest Ohio, Cedarville University is an accredited, Christ-centered, Baptist institution with an enrollment of 4,193 undergraduate, graduate and online students in more than 150 areas of study. Founded in 1887, Cedarville is recognized nationally for its authentic Christian community, rigorous academic programs, strong graduation and retention rates, accredited professional and health science offerings and leading student satisfaction ratings.
